Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A tale of love, betrayal and horror spawned by ignorance! Even if you have never been through a divorce, chances are you know someone who has. It is a life altering experience for everyone. In a small town just outside Salt Lake City, Utah, life for Steele Carrington and his four children turned to complete horror. A family desperately struggles to remain together despite being overlooked by the blind eye of our lady justice. Described is the confusion, complexity and lack of communication in a system put in place to protect children and make decisions in their best interests. Addressed are Utah Division of Child and Family Services standards, father s rights, non custodial parents; the not so friendly family court, including attorneys, guardians ad litem, visitation, custody reform and custody evaluations. Experience the poignant stuggles of these young children as they are tourmented by the issues of truth, fairness, equity, ethics and abuse.
