Excerpt: .voices all to me were love and joy, For unto those, who know thee as thou art Love is thy heart and all thy spirit joy. Thy stars have uttered to me loftiest thoughts, And the pure loveliness of thy blue sky, As I have gazed into its spirit-depths, And felt it glancing back into my soul, Seeming as twere God s bounty, beaming down With fulness of infinite good, hath been Ever to me a holy influence Of purity and loftiness and love. Oh! it is beautiful to live, to revel In love and thought, to walk the earth with free, Unbounded spirit, plucking everywhere Life s golden fruit from every laden bough, With nature quick to all glad influence; Aye tuned to love as the full-blossomed rose Opes to the sunlight; for Beauty longing And finding it all o er the universe, Which...
