Such questionings sot mo flushing in deadly chills. My brain was weak, my heart exhausted, my body seemed truthful perforee and confessed on the rack. I could not deny that I had partly, insensibly clung to the vain glitter of hereditary distinction, my father s pitfall; taking it for a substantial foothold, when a young man of wit and sensibility and, mark you, true pride, would have made it his first care to trample that under heel. Excellent is pride; but oh I be sure of its foundations before you go on building monument high. I know nothing to equal the anguish of an examination of the basis of one s...
