Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.With the lose of Angie Bradshaw s husband she is now faced with a new challenge. She had to go to a town in West Virginia mountains for the reading of a will. Twins entered into her life that she knew nothing about, where they came from, or why they acted the way they do. When she finds out the children are beaten almost everyday she takes matters into her own hands and demands that she gets help. Her own two children accept these children and works with them. She struggles to show them affection because they have not been shown much if not any at all. The children s Dad stays gone long periods of time on construction jobs which leaves them solely with their mother who abuses them. Angie gets temporary custody of the two children and later is given full custody. She finds out that they have not gone to school for two years and she teaches them over the summer. Once they find out that they are loved and cared for by Angie and...
