METHODS OF TEACHING PRIMARY GRADES: COURSE (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Methods of Teaching Primary Grades: Course Many years experience in the Religious School has convinced me that there is an imperative need for some easy lessons for the youngest children, the beginners, who enter our schools. The lessons must be simple in ideas as well as words. They must be easy of comprehension and attractive in form. The aim of the following lessons has been to supply this need by presenting a curriculum for the teacher and the parents of the children in Primary Grade (the first year of a child s life in the Religious School). The effort has been made to give every consideration to the fact that at this period in its life the plastic mind of the child receives some of its deepest and most lasting impressions. These lessons aim to combine the teaching of the Bible stories with the ethical lessons to be drawn from them. The events are presented in the Biblical order, and they endeavor to build up in the child s mind the elementary, underlying principles of Judaism. What to omit is just as important as what to teach. Therefore, some of the incidents in the early Bible stories have been omitted, as they are beyond the comprehension of the young child. Such stories should be included later in the advanced classes, and the omissions thus supplied receive their proper place in a well-rounded curriculum. This is done in the succeeding courses of the Correspondence School. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
