The visionary Baldwin then chose two of three swords of bent shape, and then sent a messenger calling the prior to come to him; and when he came, with five or six other monks, the vision of Baldwin spoke again, saying, It is my wish to destroy this new cathedral which you are building that is, the one which was replacing the burned choir of Conrad, and for that end have I made this wheel; but now I am unable to turn it without your help. Therefore push it round, and destroy all this work. So the prior and the five others put their shoulders to the wheel and pushed, and they were not able to move it. And Baldwin, when he saw this, said, There are too few; go, fetch other monks. And two more came; and they also were...
