Pen & Sword Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Coventry in the Great War, Leonard Markham, During World War One, the city of Coventry was a powerhouse that kept the barrels loaded and the engines of war purring. During the First World War, the advanced state of the machine tooling industry in the city meant that pre-war production could quickly be turned to war production purposes, with the Coventry Ordnance Works assuming the role of one of the leading production centres in the UK, manufacturing a quarter of all British aircraft produced during the war. But the experience of war also impacted on the inhabitants of the area, from the initial enthusiasm for sorting out the German Kaiser in time for Christmas 1914, to the gradual realization of the enormity of human sacrifice the families of Coventry were committed to as the war stretched out over the next four years. The Great War affected everyone. At home there were wounded...
