This question has arisen from a false ascription of sex to the human mind. We have heard so much about male education, and female education, that in public estimation, both mind and education have been divided into masculine and feminine; and these distinctions have been kept up, till one might suppose that woman belonged to a different order of beings. Not the female sex of man; but a charming creature, caught in a net, to be caged for the gratification of man s curiosity; to sip from her own peculiar cup; nibble her own peculiar cake; and, like a bird of note, be admired more or less according to the number of airs she might learn to sing: while the ruder sex are to be treated as rational beings, and to...
