Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A collection of seven short stories - each with a twist in the tale! Ian George takes you on an eternal journey, a false identity, through faithless cynicism, a fairy tale, lost love, a predator back to another eternal journey. Seven tales that challenge beliefs and question faith, that break down the barriers between love and hate, life and death. 1.Don t go Home Tonight You damn bitch, he spat the words. She recoiled from his raised hand as he slipped his fingers through his attractively tousled hair. The smile on his handsome face was a humourless triumphant snarl. He enjoyed controlling her without touching, he was a puppet master and she was his marionette. 2.The Avatar He had not tried to hold her. Perhaps that was why he had lost her in the first place, because he did not try hard enough. He remembered watching her retreating back. The door had slammed with such finality behind her, he knew it was over. He had not seen her since. But there she was, staring in monochromatic blankness out of the front page of the newspaper, every bit as beautiful, even in newsprint. 3.The Inn on Primrose Hill The Gibbet, he had read, was an Inn that had once occupied a prime location, but had found itself isolated by the arrival of the motor car. In particular, the arrival of a motorway that cut directly through, over, or under, obstacles instead of snaking around them. Thus in one sweep of a planner s pencil, the oxygen of passing trade had been cut off. It had extinguished the life of the inn as abruptly as the blade of a guillotine...
